DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election without traverse of species iii (claims 16-20) in the reply filed on 4/21/06 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. What is meant by "remotely located" is not clear. Is it also meant that the experiment including the substance is located in a remote place?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 16 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Bossaert (4551679). See Bossaert's col.2, lines 60-63.

Claims 16-18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated Manabu (42382810). The substance is excited from the ground state. See Manabu's abstract.

Claims 16 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lee et al (5338687). Lee et al discloses the same invention as claimed: substance labeled with radioactive isotopes being detected from ground energy state to higher energy states; the material detected by radiation (beta emission) of the isotope. See col.10, lines 10-15; co.2, lines 14-20; co.3, lines 50-57; col.5, lines 5-20; claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lee et al (5338687). Lee et al discloses substantially the same invention as claimed, except for the substance being concealed. It is well-known that biological molecules are contained (ie, concealed) in flasks or containers in chemical experiments. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Lee et al by employing a flask or a container to contain (ie, conceal) the biological molecules labeled with isotopes in order to perform the experiment.

Double Patenting

Art Unit: 2862

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 16-18 and 20 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 9 of U.S. Patent No. 6150812. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claim 9 of the patent anticipates claim 16, and anticipation is "epitome of obviousness." As to claims 17-18, the obviousness reasoning is similar to that of the above 103 rejection.
